

APAAC SEMINARS JULY, 2011 – JUNE, 2012

Seminars in bold are new seminars.

Seminars in black are recurring seminars.

TRAINING TITLE	DATE	ATTENDANCE	CLE HOURS	Substantive Changes to Existing Programs	Eval Score for overall trng	Attendee Comments Regarding Overall
Summer Training Conference	8/3-5/2011	514 Attendees	10.5 hours Including 4.5 ethics	(1) high-profile keynote speaker; (2) pre-registration for breakout sessions; (3) allowing attendees to choose their polo shirt size, color, and style; (4) incorporating PowerPoint for the award nominee introductions; and (5) having a PowerPoint slideshow of photos from prosecutors/staff across Arizona	4.04	Suggestions: (1) repeat the breakout sessions; (2) make materials available for download prior to conference Overall: (1) "Excellent speakers this year"; (2) "Ten times better than last year (which was pretty good)!"; (3) "Conference helps more than I can put into words"; (4) "Best training I have attended"; (5) Keep up[the good work – best one so far!"; (6) "By far the best APAAC seminar in 10 years. Continue to bring in people in Bugliosi"; (7) Probably the best conference in the past 5 years"; and (8) "Very well organized. APAAC staff was friendly and helpful. Wonderful conference. Like the format – fewer presentations, more information."
Train the Trainer Seminar	9/12-15/2011	28 Attendees			N/A (NDAA course)	N/A (NDAA course)
Executive Leadership Seminar	9/22-23/2011	15 Attendees	N/A

APAAC SEMINARS JULY, 2011 – JUNE, 2012

Seminars in bold are new seminars.

Seminars in black are recurring seminars.

Misdemeanor Intermediate Advocacy	10/10-14/2011	9 Attendees	32.5 hours Including 5.0 ethics	This was the second time the course was offered. We made minor changes to the presentation topics and lengths.	4.71	"By far best training I have ever been to"
Forensic Interviewing of Autistic Children	10/18/2011	21 Attendees	3.0 hours		4.75
Professionalism Course	10/21/2011	17 Attendees	4.0 hours Including 4.0 ethics		4.8
Basic Advocacy Course	10/24-28/2011	11 Attendees	32.25 hours Including 3.0 ethics	We began using a team leader model, and introduced a jury selection exercise which involved community members as prospective jurors	4.46
Protecting Victims of Crime/ U&T Visas	11/1/2011	20 Attendees	3.0 hours		N/A
Wiretap Seminar	11/3-4/2011	67 Attendees	12.75 hours Including 1.0 ethics			"Excellent presentation. I hope that this seminar with updates will be available every year." "This was a great presentation. I had no knowledge or experience with wiretap before this and learned a great deal."

APAAC SEMINARS JULY, 2011 – JUNE, 2012

Seminars in bold are new seminars.

Seminars in black are recurring seminars.

Legal Assistants Conference	12/2/2011	116 Attendees	3 hours	Changed previous “seminar” format to that of a “conference”. Gave out “Legal Assistant of the Year” award. Had an awards luncheon	4.23
Support Staff Conference	12/9/2011	110 Attendees	N/A	Changed previous “seminar” format to that of a “conference”. Gave out “Support Staff of the Year” award. Had an awards luncheon	4.54
Beyond Courtroom Mechanics	12/16/2011	78 Attendees	6.0 hours Including 1.5 ethics		4.14	“APAAC is doing a great job with the cle this year, some of the best I have ever seen.” “One of the best seminars in a long time.”
Basic Advocacy Course	1/9-13/2012	7 Attendees	29.75 hours Including 1.0 ethics	We further refined the juror voir exercise, and also incorporated an interactive ethics presentation.	4.40
Domestic Violence Seminar	1/20/2012	57 Attendees	6.25 hours		3.55
Capital Case Jury Selection	2/1-3/2012	31 Attendees	15.0	N/A (NDAA seminar)	4.66	N/A (NDAA seminar)
Objections Practice Kingman, AZ	2/8/2012	14 Attendees	1.0 hours		N/A	N/A
Anatomy of a Drug Case	2/10/2012	40 Attendees	6.0 hours		4.29

APAAC SEMINARS JULY, 2011 – JUNE, 2012

Seminars in bold are new seminars.

Seminars in black are recurring seminars.

Objections Practice Mesa City Pros. Ofc.	3/1/2012	13 Attendees	1.0 hours		N/A	N/A
Jury Selection Course	3/2/2012	104 Attendees	5.75 hours		3.65	“This was one of the best conferences I have been to.”
Criminal Year in Review – Tucson	3/16/2012	82 Attendees	6.0 hours including 1.0 ethics		3.96	“Best Ethics presentation I have seen.” “Best Ethics presentation I have sat through in 20+ years.” “[Ethics] presentation was a vast improvement over past panel presentation.”
Criminal Year in Review – Phoenix	3/23/2012	180 Attendees	6.0 hours including 1.0 ethics		4.10	“Probably the best Ethics presentation I have heard.” “Much improved Criminal Year in Review, thank you for listening to our comments.”
Criminal Year in Review - Mesa	3/30/2012	191 Attendees	6.0 hours including 1.0 ethics		4.19	“One of the best Ethics presentations for prosecutors in a long time.”
An Appellate Primer	5/4/2012	65 Attendees	6.0 hours		4.33	“I felt there was great information provided – there’s a lot more that could be presented. I actually used the information in two responses in the week following the seminar.”

APAAC SEMINARS JULY, 2011 – JUNE, 2012

Seminars in bold are new seminars.

Seminars in black are recurring seminars.

Ethics Seminar	6/8/2012	65 Attendees 17 via webinar	3.0 hours Including 3.0 ethics	This year's ethics seminar included the following: (1) presentation on the ethical prep of witnesses by two New York prosecutors; and (2) presentation on candor to the court by two bar counsel who are both former prosecutors.	4.43	"I thought both groups of presenters were very good. Tom and Nicole used video examples that are easy to remember and were good jumping off points for conversation. I always enjoy hearing from bar counsel because they are so knowledgeable."
Forfeiture Seminar	6/15/2012	64 Attendees	6.25 hours including 1.0 hours of ethics		3.90	"Overall very informative! Some of the speakers were very dry." "I was expecting the general session to walk us through the statutes – when and how to use asset forfeiture."
Felony Intermediate Advocacy Course	6/18-22/2012	28 Attendees	23.5 hours including 2.0 ethics		4.84	"Effective, engaged, insightful, hands-on, and motivating." "Best training I have ever attended. Already have begun to use skills learned in my cases and trials."