

Q8. Overall, how satisfied were you with the Welcome Reception?

23	The band was awesome!	Aug 7, 2013 3:49 PM
24	Whiskey Tango ROCKS!!!	Aug 7, 2013 3:02 PM
25	THE best welcome reception taht I can remember- and the music was a fun addition.	Aug 7, 2013 1:30 PM
26	I stay out of alcohol social events when I am driving home afterward.	Aug 6, 2013 4:53 PM
27	Loved the live music!	Aug 6, 2013 4:46 PM
28	the music was WAY too loud to be played inside that room!	Aug 6, 2013 3:38 PM
29	Great speaker	Aug 6, 2013 3:18 PM
30	Live band was great but it was hard to be heard above the music.	Aug 6, 2013 2:50 PM
31	band was great	Aug 6, 2013 2:38 PM
32	Reading the award nominations was not a good use of time. It is nice that they are printed in the materials.	Aug 6, 2013 2:17 PM
33	loved the band. They were excellent.	Aug 6, 2013 2:08 PM
34	I might have had a little more food there, but as most people (including myself) were heading out to dinner it worked out fine.	Aug 6, 2013 2:01 PM
35	No CLE offered for preceding session, so no reason for locals to attend. Also, am not thrilled to be underwriting others' alcohol bills....	Aug 6, 2013 1:54 PM
36	Band was okay, but should probably played at sometime other than when the reception was going on because people wanted to talk.	Aug 6, 2013 1:51 PM
37	The lack of CLE credit awarded for the presentation before the Welcome Reception made the Welcome Reception less desirable to attend. Also, the Welcome Reception is at a time that is inconvenient for most people with children, especially when those children must be picked up from school or daycare.	Aug 6, 2013 1:34 PM
38	Unfortunately, the acoustics were such that the band's music just sounded like noise which made it almost impossible to have a conversation.	Aug 6, 2013 1:27 PM
39	It was noisy. I was trying to talk to a friend and felt like I was screaming. I left for that reason.	Aug 6, 2013 1:25 PM
40	the live band was a nice touch.	Aug 6, 2013 1:22 PM
41	The music was so loud I couldn't converse comfortably.	Aug 6, 2013 1:20 PM
42	Live band was a nice touch.	Aug 6, 2013 1:19 PM
43	Good drinks and food. Not a very contained area (the hallway) so it was hard to mingle.	Aug 6, 2013 1:17 PM

Q8. Overall, how satisfied were you with the Welcome Reception?

44	The noise level with just the people is high, adding the band made it difficult to talk.	Aug 6, 2013 1:06 PM
45	There should have been non-alcoholic drinks other than water.	Aug 6, 2013 1:04 PM
46	Band was way too loud.	Aug 6, 2013 1:02 PM
47	The band may have been a nice idea in theory, but in actuality people are trying to converse so it was distracting.	Aug 6, 2013 12:55 PM
48	I had to work late -- i heard it was very good.	Aug 6, 2013 12:48 PM
49	Music too loud.	Aug 6, 2013 12:48 PM

Q9. Overall, how satisfied were you with the Awards Lunch?

1	Hey, we got 3 out of 5. Woo Hoooooo.....	Sep 23, 2013 2:51 PM
2	Buffet food in the past has been much better than plated meal this time	Sep 3, 2013 11:21 AM
3	Hair in my food. Certainly not APAAC's fault. :)	Aug 29, 2013 5:20 PM
4	Loved the fact that non-dairy substitutes were available. As always, would like to hear from the award winners.	Aug 26, 2013 2:21 PM
5	food was very good	Aug 26, 2013 1:12 PM
6	I didn't think the food was as good this year.	Aug 26, 2013 8:19 AM
7	I felt bad for Elizabeth - better control needs to be taken of the crowd so we can here her speak.	Aug 22, 2013 3:44 PM
8	Still hungry after lunch (miss the buffet)	Aug 22, 2013 3:37 PM
9	Music was a little too loud and we needed a little more down time while eating.	Aug 22, 2013 11:25 AM
10	rechron awards ceremony. too many people left at the end. people seem to want to chat and socialize. perhaps a streamlined program would be good	Aug 19, 2013 3:04 PM
11	I got sick and was not able to attend.	Aug 15, 2013 12:58 PM
12	Food was delicious and it was not as long as others have been.	Aug 14, 2013 2:47 PM
13	The food was pretty bad.	Aug 14, 2013 11:48 AM
14	The buffet last year was excellent. The food this year was not good	Aug 14, 2013 9:50 AM
15	The chicken was better than the pork. The wedge salad was surprisingly good (because of all the bacon, I suspect).	Aug 14, 2013 7:34 AM
16	Outstanding food, outstanding service, and I greatly enjoyed the historical trivia, too!	Aug 13, 2013 4:39 PM
17	The presentation of the awards during a lunch hour was not fair to either the awardees nor those eating lunch. This time is best to network and share information. The trivia seemed to go on for an overly extended period. It might be best to make the awards a little shorter and occur at the opening of the seminar.	Aug 13, 2013 8:25 AM
18	The quality of the food this year was subpar compared to other years. I understand the seated lunch allows for the program to proceed quicker, but I thought the buffet mexican type food was much better..	Aug 12, 2013 1:20 PM
19	The "then and now" game was a good idea in theory, but after a few minutes the people stopped paying attention and the announcer was yelling over the crowd. I also had the chicken and found it inedible.	Aug 12, 2013 11:53 AM
20	Would have been nice to see more people stick around for the awards. Maybe if the awards are done before food more people would stay.	Aug 12, 2013 10:57 AM
21	Having a plated lunch was great.	Aug 12, 2013 10:17 AM

Q9. Overall, how satisfied were you with the Awards Lunch?

22	The awards and speeches were done while everyone was talking at their tables. There should have been some effort made to get everyone's attention before the speaker started. I couldn't hear anything that was said.	Aug 12, 2013 9:32 AM
23	It got pretty long and people started leaving. Kind of rude.	Aug 9, 2013 4:07 PM
24	Hard to see with your back to the awardees	Aug 9, 2013 11:32 AM
25	The buffet was better. The food was not spectacular and I would recommend going back to the previous setup.	Aug 9, 2013 9:45 AM
26	Food was OK - I ended up with back to stage so that was kind of uncomfortable.	Aug 9, 2013 9:19 AM
27	No complaints with the ones I've attended in the past though.	Aug 8, 2013 1:17 PM
28	I don't think a warm up session is needed. I would rather spend that time socializing with attorney's from other offices. I think it's best to honor the award recipients, and give the rest of the lunch break to attendees to do as they will.	Aug 8, 2013 9:25 AM
29	Like the sit down vs. buffet meal.	Aug 8, 2013 9:25 AM
30	The past buffets were much better. The vegetarian dish was disappointing.	Aug 8, 2013 9:06 AM
31	Food quality was mediocre. Too much clapping... please save the clapping for the end of the ceremony! The entire conference was one clapping fest to another.	Aug 8, 2013 8:06 AM
32	The awards aspect carried on far too long. We're all prosecutors. We get that so-and-so "really cares about victims" and "works very hard on his/her cases." Got it. Oh, and you didn't have a single nominee from the Attorney General's Office for Appellate Attorney of the Year, and we are the office that handles appeals? That was pretty insulting. And the lunch food was terrible.	Aug 7, 2013 5:28 PM
33	Food not as good as previous years	Aug 7, 2013 5:24 PM
34	Every year, I need to have a special meal because of food allergies. Every year, I tell them that I'm supposed to have a special meal. However, the servers don't listen and then I have to tell them that I'm allergic to what they are serving. They eventually found my specially-ordered food, but it caused a big commotion at my table and causing me to feel embarrassed.	Aug 7, 2013 5:13 PM
35	The presentation was nice - just wasn't a big fan of the food served.	Aug 7, 2013 4:29 PM
36	The Awards Lunch was okay. The vegetarian dish was so bad. I really don't agree with giving awards out like they are currently done.	Aug 7, 2013 3:30 PM
37	Food was mediocre to poor; trivia game was uninteresting and annoying to try to talk over	Aug 7, 2013 3:02 PM
38	The buffet from years past was better than the food this year.	Aug 7, 2013 2:11 PM
39	The awards were wonderful to hear, but the "then and now" game was hard to hear or follow. And the food was mediocre.	Aug 7, 2013 1:30 PM

Q9. Overall, how satisfied were you with the Awards Lunch?

40	I enjoyed seeing a colleague from our office get the award but was very disappointed in the food - vegetarian is more than a mound of gummy rice - it also includes vegetables. The only good thing was the berries.	Aug 7, 2013 1:10 PM
41	Wish we could hold the winner in suspense until the very announcement. Having their bosses introduce them kinda gave it away.	Aug 7, 2013 9:56 AM
42	The food was lackluster.	Aug 7, 2013 9:29 AM
43	food was very good and the luncheon was well run.	Aug 7, 2013 9:19 AM
44	The trivia portion was unnecessary especially when a large portion of the rest of the lunch is spent listening to the awards. It was awkward to have so many people wanting to talk to their colleagues and someone up at the podium shouting to be heard on things that didn't matter.	Aug 7, 2013 9:13 AM
45	Heard a lot of comments about only a few offices winning the awards, all of whom were with the Council...	Aug 7, 2013 7:39 AM
46	I don't think we should have someone talking during the entire lunch! Just do the awards toward the end of the lunch. And I like the buffet style lunch better than the plate service.	Aug 6, 2013 7:29 PM
47	The "guess which year - 1973 or 2013" thing seemed to fall a bit flat. I think people wanted to have an opportunity to talk amongst themselves before the awards portion began rather than being chided for talking while the guess which year feature progressed. Also, I know the buffet at last year's APAAC created some issues so I understand why the switch to plated occurred but everyone I spoke with agreed their meal left much to be desired.	Aug 6, 2013 5:46 PM
48	a few years ago (2008 or 2009?), La Paloma did a mexican buffet or something. that was a great lunch. this year, the food was simply awful. I would much rather have a salad option than any of the things they served. it was really really bad.	Aug 6, 2013 3:38 PM
49	I liked the Mexican food better, but this was good.	Aug 6, 2013 3:23 PM
50	It was very nice but the plated meal wasn't as good as the usual buffet	Aug 6, 2013 3:21 PM
51	A little long. Hard to hear then and now and other preliminary remarks	Aug 6, 2013 3:18 PM
52	It would be nice if there was more time to talk to the people at your table. You might cut part of the presentation and only do the awards ceremony around dessert.	Aug 6, 2013 3:14 PM
53	The pork was dry and I had some other complaints about the food from my staff	Aug 6, 2013 2:51 PM
54	The vegetarian option was not appealing at all.	Aug 6, 2013 2:50 PM
55	Better than I anticipated	Aug 6, 2013 2:17 PM
56	I did enjoy the goodies and I thought the lunch was great.	Aug 6, 2013 2:01 PM
57	The main entree of pork loin was small and I left feeling hungry.	Aug 6, 2013 1:57 PM

Q9. Overall, how satisfied were you with the Awards Lunch?

58	Food and service was substandard... the programs were great.	Aug 6, 2013 1:57 PM
59	Plated lunch much better!	Aug 6, 2013 1:54 PM
60	Awards lunch was not good. Pork was dry. I liked the Mexican food buffet better.	Aug 6, 2013 1:51 PM
61	There was no time to talk to people at your table. Could have done without the trivia.	Aug 6, 2013 1:42 PM
62	The food wasn't that good, and some of the county/city attorneys yelled into the microphone.	Aug 6, 2013 1:36 PM
63	Two hours is far too long for any luncheon.	Aug 6, 2013 1:34 PM
64	lunch was good!	Aug 6, 2013 1:30 PM
65	The pork was dry. It was much better when the lunch was a Mexican buffet.	Aug 6, 2013 1:27 PM
66	Our waitress was somewhat rude to us, but I don't think that has anything to do with APAAC.	Aug 6, 2013 1:25 PM
67	It would have been nice if attendees of the lunch had quieted down a bit for the awards ceremony and announcements.	Aug 6, 2013 1:24 PM
68	Generally, I despise self-congratulatory awards luncheons. Please just put it in a memo next time. Also, the measure of a good prosecutor should not be based on the numbers of convictions and the severity of sentences imposed.	Aug 6, 2013 1:24 PM
69	I liked the menu choices	Aug 6, 2013 1:22 PM
70	The food was very good.	Aug 6, 2013 1:22 PM
71	I liked not having to stand in line to get food.	Aug 6, 2013 1:20 PM
72	The food was terrible! I would much prefer the Mexican food buffet. Also, we had just sat down and were catching up when unnecessary talking started. It would be nice to allow us to socialize and then do the awards when we are actually paying attention. I had completely tuned out by the time the awards started.	Aug 6, 2013 1:17 PM
73	People want to talk at the luncheon and not have to pay attention to someone up at the podium who's saying nothing of importance. Why don't you let the recipients talk instead of the electeds? We already had the info on the nominees in materials, then it was re-hashed again in the opening ceremonies (please don't do that --we can read!) . food was ok--typical hotel stuff. preferred buffet	Aug 6, 2013 1:17 PM
74	Very festive, loved the music and theme. Great way to honor prosecutors of the year in a fun environment.	Aug 6, 2013 1:14 PM
75	The awards lunch felt forced. There was no need for the now or then game. Just eating and discussing the lectures would have been fine. None of it was bad; however, none of it was needed.	Aug 6, 2013 1:08 PM
76	I think that we should think about doing career achievement awards first. And all	Aug 6, 2013 1:07 PM awards should start at the beginning instead of waiting for people to eat first. That might help keep people's attention.

77	Lunch went a bit too long and it was difficult for the speaker to be heard over everyone talking.	Aug 6, 2013 1:04 PM
78	Now and then was dumb.	Aug 6, 2013 1:03 PM
79	The food was pretty, but not delicious. Also, the awards lunch is an opportunity for many of us to sit and catch up with people we don't often see. The warm-up thing with the "Then or Now" game was largely ignored and something for people to talk over. I think it would be better to leave that time unstructured.	Aug 6, 2013 1:00 PM
80	Food was rather bland. Difficult to chat with colleagues during the trivia presentation.	Aug 6, 2013 12:59 PM
81	The main course was not as good as we have had in the past.	Aug 6, 2013 12:53 PM
82	I liked that you guys keep the Awards Lunch moving. In other settings, I've seen these things drag on. There was a nice flow.	Aug 6, 2013 12:51 PM
83	People were a little noisy while the speaker was talking about "then & now." Also, I really prefer the Mexican buffet over the plated dinners.	Aug 6, 2013 12:51 PM
84	Food was not very good at all.	Aug 6, 2013 12:50 PM
85	The lunch seemed to be of lower quality than in the past few years.	Aug 6, 2013 12:50 PM
86	there was no need to do the trivia. people were networking and chatting.	Aug 6, 2013 12:48 PM

Q10. How worthwhile were the conference materials?

1	I don't really know. They are online and I have not looked at them	Aug 26, 2013 1:12 PM
2	LOVE that you had them online before the conference so I could download and take with me on my iPad. MUCH more convenient than lugging around a binder of materials.	Aug 26, 2013 8:19 AM
3	Search and Seizure/Confessions was the highlight	Aug 25, 2013 9:40 AM
4	To be honest, now that the materials are all online and not provided, I don't think many people print them out and bring them to the conference.	Aug 15, 2013 12:58 PM
5	There was no ethics training. The cross-examination seminar appeared to be centered around Sandusky trial war stories rather than the subject matter. The bright spot was the search and seizure update as always.	Aug 13, 2013 4:12 PM
6	Asking one question for all the materials is not very helpful. The quality of the materials varied. I wish the Cross-Examination materials matched the PowerPoint - there was a lot of good material in both and I had trouble keeping up with the additional info in the presentation. Please offer to help Chris Cabanillas create a comprehensive Search and Seizure collection. I have supplements for 2013, 2010, 2008, and have the 2005 version with Table of Contents.	Aug 13, 2013 2:49 PM
7	Cabanillas' are the most useful of the materials	Aug 11, 2013 12:32 PM
8	depending on the lecture. Some were extremely helpful, others not as much.	Aug 9, 2013 10:22 AM
9	Cabanillas outline...	Aug 9, 2013 9:45 AM
10	Search & Seizure was the best	Aug 8, 2013 1:17 PM
11	Search and Seizure and Confessions - amazing.	Aug 8, 2013 9:31 AM
12	I enjoyed the morning session with the attorneys from Ohio. The afternoon session had good information, but a lot of it was review, and several hours of search and seizure in one afternoon was a lot to sit through. Perhaps breaking it up between AM and PM could make it a bit more palatable.	Aug 8, 2013 9:25 AM
13	Cabanillas materials, as usual, are some of the most helpful things available. I was disappointed to learn that her full materials are only available for purchase from AZ State Bar...she mentioned trying to work out a deal w/APAAC making them available to all prosecutors--would much appreciate that!	Aug 7, 2013 3:02 PM
14	I understand the move away from print materials but I would still have liked print or a thumb drive. I wish Chris Cabonilla's materials were more in order with her lecture in stead of a completely different organization.	Aug 7, 2013 1:30 PM
15	The Cabanillas portion was very helpful, as always.	Aug 7, 2013 9:13 AM
16	Cabanillas' Search and Seizure materials were excellent, along with the materials for the other presenters. Well done.	Aug 6, 2013 5:46 PM
17	The ability to obtain the material prior to the conference / download is extremely helpful. The trees thank you as well as I do as our office is moving towards	Aug 6, 2013 5:19 PM

	paperless.
18	They're great to have, but I didn't have them at the conference bc I thought I would be able to access them online. There is no available wi fi in the conference rooms, so I wasn't able to access the materials during the conference.	Aug 6, 2013 5:12 PM
19	the update packets from Jones and Cabanillas have lots of useful stuff in them, but it's very difficult to locate anything in there!	Aug 6, 2013 3:38 PM
20	have not downloaded yet	Aug 6, 2013 2:45 PM
21	Chris' S/S and confession outline always good Insanity good too	Aug 6, 2013 2:38 PM
22	Have not reviewed them--I assume they are at least slightly worthwhile--given I have to answer this question.	Aug 6, 2013 2:17 PM
23	Good program materials. Disappointed that the Dr. Peter	Aug 6, 2013 1:57 PM
24	Search and Seizure information is great!	Aug 6, 2013 1:54 PM
25	There were no conference materials provided at the conference	Aug 6, 2013 1:45 PM
26	I really liked that the written materials were available online only--saves paper! Also, the topics of the lectures were much more valuable this year than in years past, I felt.	Aug 6, 2013 1:43 PM
27	thank you for publishing all conference materials on line (so we can obtain hand outs for breakout sessions that we did not attend).	Aug 6, 2013 1:30 PM
28	As always, it depends on the presenter and how organized their stuff is.	Aug 6, 2013 1:17 PM
29	Christina Cabanillas' materials are essential. Please keep inviting her back.	Aug 6, 2013 1:14 PM
30	Thank you for the Search and Seizure and Confessions Outline. Always love getting this new information.	Aug 6, 2013 1:06 PM
31	It would be great if APAAC would go back to providing written materials (or at least outlines) to the participants so they can follow along with the presenter. To save paper and printing costs, perhaps the written materials (or outlines) could at least be available to those who want them in hand.	Aug 6, 2013 1:04 PM
32	Only because I did not realize I needed to download them ahead of time.	Aug 6, 2013 1:00 PM
33	fantastic!	Aug 6, 2013 12:48 PM

Q11. How worthwhile were the breakout sessions?

1	Insanity Defense breakout was great. Juvenile sex offender breakout was not.	Sep 3, 2013 11:21 AM
2	disappointed in the spice and dui presentations. they did not meet my expectations.	Aug 22, 2013 3:44 PM
3	I signed up for a breakout session I am fairly certain I attended last yeat. I didn't go to the other breakout session I signed up for because I realized I had already attended a longer version of that training, and instead went to a session that was not helpful. I was limited in the breakout sessions that would be useful because I don't deal with DUIs, Elder Abuse, or juvenile sex offenders. I looked at Prosecutor's Encyclopedia and it looked like they were trying to sell me something, so clearly I was not interested in attending that.	Aug 22, 2013 2:36 PM
4	The emotional survival session was phenomenal.	Aug 21, 2013 9:05 AM
5	I think a breakout session dealing with how to prosecute drug cases (not just DUI drugs) would be helpful.	Aug 17, 2013 11:25 AM
6	Only attended the main keynote speaker	Aug 16, 2013 7:23 AM
7	I enjoyed the New York Website prosecutor. I also liked Beth Barnes DUI session.	Aug 15, 2013 9:00 AM
8	Spice testing was very interesting but not likely to prosecute these cases based on practicality of testing.	Aug 14, 2013 2:47 PM
9	The emotional survival was great.	Aug 14, 2013 11:48 AM
10	Beth Barnes is the Guru!	Aug 14, 2013 7:34 AM
11	I attended the Prosecutors' Encyclopedia and Spice breakout sections. Both were well-done and very worthwhile.	Aug 13, 2013 2:49 PM
12	I really enjoyed the Emotional Survival with Dr. Gilmartin presentation.	Aug 12, 2013 7:01 AM
13	my daughter fell ill during the conference and I was unable to attend the breakout sessions.	Aug 8, 2013 4:48 PM
14	I felt that the conference was extremely well organized and it was clear that a lot of time and effort was put into even the small details. I enjoyed the emotional survival breakout session and feel that that is a lecture every attorney could benefit from.	Aug 8, 2013 12:09 PM
15	Out of all the ones offered, only 2 were applicable/worthwhile for me to attend. However, they both were great.	Aug 8, 2013 9:42 AM
16	Unfortunately I was not able to attend the breakout session because I had to cover grand jury.	Aug 8, 2013 9:25 AM
17	DUI breakout presented value, and utilized the full time allotment. The Spice breakout could have been presented in 5 minutes rather than an hour and a half.	Aug 8, 2013 8:06 AM
18	Again, no session for Appellate lawyers. You guys forget that a conviction and sentence are not final until we prevail on appeal. We are just as important as the	Aug 7, 2013 5:28 PM folks getting the convictions in the trial court.

19	Of Ocourse, I taught a breakout session	Aug 7, 2013 5:24 PM
20	The Juvenile section was not what we asked for. In fact, I've heard that same speech 3 times now! Very disappointing. Also, when I registered, I was confused. (Probably I was the only one, but still.) I thought that it was a 2-part program, so I signed up for the same program twice! Luckily, I was able to go to a different break out session for the 2nd one.	Aug 7, 2013 5:13 PM
21	The session with Dr. Pitt and Joanthan Mosher was very helpful from the perspective of how to best utilize your experts.	Aug 7, 2013 4:14 PM
22	Beth Barnes always does such a great job.	Aug 7, 2013 3:30 PM
23	I attended the Jury Selection breakout session with Cindi Nannetti, which was very worthwhile and I highly recommend it. I attended the Prosecutor's Encyclopedia breakout session with Sean Smith, which was completely useless. It was basically an hour and a half sales pitch to get the New York Prosecutor's Training Institute more federal funding by getting people to sign up for their website. Smith was almost hostile towards one participant who questioned the value of the website, and spent a good part of the session dodging a direct question of how the website would be useful to Arizona prosecutors. It seemed as if he was more interested in getting Arizona prosecutors to contribute information than to offering an existing benefit to the site. I was disappointed by the limited selection of seminars this year--for the most part they seemed very narrowly directed (insanity defense, two different DUI seminars; although these were all taught by extremely good instructors and I'm sure were a wealth of knowledge in that specific category) to a small group of prosecutors, and it was difficult to choose something that applied to me in my job. 24	Dr. Gilmartin is a must for any career prosecutor.	Aug 7, 2013 9:20 AM
25	The options for the breakout sessions did not seem that good this year. Even the ones that might be helpful like the insanity session was very similar to a break out session from the previous year.	Aug 7, 2013 9:13 AM
26	I really enjoyed the Emotional Survival session and I am now enjoying the presenter's book; he should have brought more to sell.	Aug 6, 2013 7:29 PM
27	Beth Barnes DUI update is always my favorite.	Aug 6, 2013 5:19 PM
28	Outstanding. both the jury selection and the NYProsecutors website seminar were very good.	Aug 6, 2013 4:53 PM
29	Another good seminar!	Aug 6, 2013 4:51 PM
30	I hoped the juvenile session would focus more on the nuts and bolts of juvenile sex offenses. Why are they committed? How do you know when you have a kid who's a budding sex offender as opposed to a kid experimenting sexually? How do you read the psycho-sexual evals? What are the tests that are administered? What is sex offender treatment? How do you assess risk after treatment? Which kids should be required to register? Instead, it was more of a sales pitch for	Aug 6, 2013 3:38 PM

Q11. How worthwhile were the breakout sessions?

ADJC, and they recommend that the bulk of sex offenders don't go there. The treatment provider from ADJC and the YDI ladies did provide some useful information, and were extremely willing to answer question.

31	Really enjoyed the Jury Selection materials and breakout	Aug 6, 2013 3:21 PM
32	Especially emotional survival	Aug 6, 2013 3:18 PM
33	I thought the Emotional Survival course was one of the best we've had in a while.	Aug 6, 2013 3:15 PM
34	I thought the breakout presentations I went to were excellent. I went to the Insanity defense breakout and the prosecutor's encyclopedia breakout.	Aug 6, 2013 3:14 PM
35	Spice Presentation by John Edget and Officer Hawkins was very well done, informative and useful.	Aug 6, 2013 2:51 PM
36	Went to Insanity--excellent and Elder Abuse--also excellent both great prosecutors!	Aug 6, 2013 2:38 PM
37	I really enjoyed Dr. Gilmartin, but I wished he spent more time discussing solutions/coping mechanisms. He really beat to death the fact we're stressed out and have shorter life spans. Cindi Nanetti's jury selection presentation was fantastic.	Aug 6, 2013 2:31 PM
38	Interesting, but not very relevant to my current job--nevertheless informative.	Aug 6, 2013 2:17 PM
39	I learned good, useful tips in both of my breakout sessions.	Aug 6, 2013 2:01 PM
40	Beth Barnes is great.	Aug 6, 2013 1:54 PM
41	Although not in my area of expertise, both were very good. The juvenile sex offender seminar was very interesting. Regarding the jury selection seminar, Cindy Nanetti was great, she should talk to all trial prosecutors about jury selection.	Aug 6, 2013 1:51 PM
42	Beth Barnes is a MASSIVE resource for misdemeanor prosecutors.	Aug 6, 2013 1:50 PM
43	One of them was excellent; the other was not helpful.	Aug 6, 2013 1:46 PM
44	Limited selection.	Aug 6, 2013 1:45 PM
45	Being a drug prosecutor, there were no sessions that helped with my subject of prosecution. The jury selection seminar was good though.	Aug 6, 2013 1:36 PM
46	Dr. Gilmartin's breakout should have been longer and mandatory for all prosecutors.	Aug 6, 2013 1:30 PM
47	I wish I could have gone to more of them. I would have liked to go to the DUI one with Beth Barnes but I had to narrow it down to 2.	Aug 6, 2013 1:25 PM
48	Prosecutor's Encyclopedia not that interesting	Aug 6, 2013 1:21 PM
49	Not many options for felony prosecutors who prosecute white collar crimes or	Aug 6, 2013 1:19 PM
